An Overview of Sankara Nethralaya
by Ashok Bagdy

Ashok Bagdy has found a great deal of success as an upper-level executive in the outsourcing industry. In return, he gives back to the community through contributions and support. One nonprofit Bagdy supports is Sankara Nethralaya, an eye hospital with several locations throughout India. Founded in 1978, the hospital has spent more than three decades providing high-quality care to hundreds of thousands of patients, both from India and abroad. On average, the hospital receives 1,200 visitors, and the surgeons perform 100 surgeries every day.
