

Aviva Betch

MFT Trainee - San Diego, CA, United States

W: <http://www.worky.com/avivabetch>

Having recently earned a Master's in Marriage and Family Therapy, Aviva Betch now works with First Avenue Counseling Centre (FACC) in San Diego. Aviva Betch joined the clinic in 2010 as a marriage and family therapist trainee and receives training from the management staff while providing counseling for individuals, couples, and families in the San Diego area. FACC is a nonprofit organization which offers low-fee treatment for clients seeking therapy.

In order to gain eligibility for the position, Aviva Betch enrolled in a master's program focused on marriage and family counseling at Alliant International University. As a trainee at FACC, Betch was required to complete at least two semesters of a master or doctoral program. With that obligation achieved, she is allowed to provide clients with therapeutic counseling.
