

David Dewar Arizona

Managing Partner at Blue Pear

W: <http://www.worky.com/daviddewar-arizona>

For 27 years, he has held leadership positions, honing his skills in virtually all facets of business, ranging from operations and finance, including acquisitions, to development and project management. His entrepreneurial and other endeavors have led David Dewar from Ontario, Canada, to Arizona and to dealings with a company owned by billionaire Li Ka-shing, the richest man in Asia.

A graduate of Ryerson Polytechnic University (now Ryerson University) in Toronto, where he earned a Bachelor of Technology, he flexed his entrepreneurial muscles right out of college, founding David C. Dewar Consulting Limited in 1985. The firm handled project-management functions for retail clients, including a supermarket chain, jewelers, a canoe store, and a bowling alley.
