Aware of the delicate web of trust that his patients have placed upon him, Mr. Herman Allen Autry values his duties as a psychotherapist like he values his professional career. As a Licensed Clinical Social Worker (LCSW), Mr. Autry has the necessary qualities that enable those with specific needs to seek his assistance. Specializing in individual therapy for both adults and adolescents, Herman Allen Autry also handles couple therapy at the Center for the Study of Anorexia and Bulimia as well as in his own private practice in New York. Knowing that the treatment of eating disorders such as binge eating, anorexia and bulimia has to be a secure and careful procedure, Herman Allen Autry makes it a point to allow his patients sufficient space to succeed on their road to recovery. Addressing other psychological problems that always accompany eating disorders, Herman Allen Autry also helps patients find therapy for their depression, anxiety, and problems with relationships and self-esteem.
