After obtaining both a Bachelor of Arts in Biology and a Master's degree in Business Administration, Herman Allen Autry proceeded to obtaining two more degrees. Landing in the Dean's list consistently at the University of Miami while obtaining the first two degrees, Herman Allen Autry continued on the same spirit of excellence by obtaining a Bachelor of Laws honors degree from the University of the West Indies, and a Legal Education Certificate (LEC) from Hugh Wooding Law School (HWLS). At HWLS, Herman was easily awarded the Outstanding Year 1 and Year 2 Law Student. After earning this impressive number of degrees successfully, Herman Allen Autry was on the way to carving a name in the field. Deciding to join the world's leading steel company, Herman Allen Autry went onboard Mittal-Arcelor as Deputy Manager for Procurement in 1996. Then, Herman climbed further to Administrative Coordinator for the DR3 Project. Herman's next post was as Deputy Manager for Marketing in 1999.
