

Larry Rhinehart

Government Relations Consultant at Waste Management -
Los Angeles, United States

W: <http://www.worky.com/larryrhinehart>

A dedicated supporter of the South Coast Air Quality Management District (SCAQMD) and the National League of Cities Waste Management, California native Larry Rhinehart strives to enhance several environmental aspects of his local community. Over the years, Larry Rhinehart has earned an outstanding reputation as a government leader in and around the city of Montclair.

With an impressive history of community involvement, Larry Rhinehart was elected to three terms as the Mayor for the city of Montclair, California. Larry Rhinehart has also affiliated with countless government associations, including the United States Conference of Mayors, the Montclair Community Action Committee, the City of Montclair Redevelopment Agency, the Montclair Planning Commission, San Bernardino Associated Governments (SANBAG), the Southern California Association of Governments (SCAG), and the League of California Cities.

Larry Rhinehart's Professional Experience

2005 - Present Waste Management - Government Relations Consultant

1991 - 2002 South Coast Air Quality Management - Intergovernmental Affairs Officer

1984 - 1991 Northrop - Business Systems Manager

Larry Rhinehart's Education and Qualifications

1987 Bachelor/Degree - Management Science
California State University

Larry Rhinehart's Additional Information

Interests

Public Service, Government Relations, Management Science, Waste Management
