With a background in prosecuting criminal cases and defending white collar tax cases, Nora Plesent serves as Principal of Lexolution, LLC, the legal staffing leader. Based in the firm's Los Angeles offices, Plesent directs Lexolution's nationwide operations. Finding attorneys, paralegals, and other legal professionals, she offers Lexolution clients the benefits of the company's database, which connects them to more than 17,000 potential candidates to fit their staffing needs.

Nora Plesent takes pride in her firm's commitment to provide talent quickly for a wide range of legal staffing needs, including additional projects, such as foreign language review in more than 20 languages and project management services. Project management services include first-level review, analysis of metrics, and hosting. As soon as the Lexolution team identifies a client's need, the staffing experts can provide resumes of viable candidates.
