

Ray Cocker

electrician - Mansfield, United Kingdom

W: <http://www.worky.com/ray-cocker>

HOBBIES & INTERESTS

Classic literature and use of a gymnasium

OTHER INFORMATION

Date of birth 23 August 1970

Non-smoker

Full driving license with transport

References available upon request

Ray Cocker's Professional Experience

2007 - Present

Gwibs 24/7 - electrician

The installation of technical electrical services, predominately in commercial and business sector property.

Project installation services from the initial concept to completion (major customers included flag ship retailers and business networking for Regus, Morrison's and Boots)

Installing wireless internet facilities, UPS and backup systems

Interpretation of technical drawings and manuals

Initial assessment of material needs

Attending site safety meetings to discuss schedules and methods of work

Use of specialist tools and powered equipment

Use of elevated platforms and mobile plant

Installation of cable runs, component parts and technical services

The isolation and restoration of power supplies

Repairs, maintenance and upgrades of existing systems

Commissioning services

Supervision of supporting labour and apprentices

Offering advice to customers on systems and services

Quality control to reach the expectation of the customer

The upkeep of a safe, orderly and hazard free workstations

Completion of tasks in agreed timeframes

Flexibility in working hours to satisfy peak demand

2006 - 2007

DB Electrical, Ripley - Domestic Installations Electrician

General electrical services in domestic property.

This position involved:

Property rewires and meter upgrades for local authorities, utility providers and private customers

Covering regional locations

Use of a company vehicle and route planning

Installing services to agreed standards and in line with legislation

Completion of set targets and schedules in agreed timeframes

Key Skills

Electrical

2005 - 2006

Farendale Electrical - Domestic Installations Electrician

A role that called for an in depth range of electrical skills and competencies

Key Skills

Electrical

Ray Cocker's Education and Qualifications

College Level -
