Based in New York, Red Entertainment Agency has represented a multitude of well-loved musical artists with hits stretching from the 1960s to the present. Red Entertainment Agency arranges concert bookings and film projects for acts such as Jodeci, Dream Academy, The Alarm, and Keith Sweat. Under the guidance of President Carlos Keyes, the company has earned a reputation for putting the needs and interests of its clients first.

The genesis of Red's "artists-first" commitment involved Mr. Keyes' experience as an agent with Pyramid Entertainment Group during the 1990s. At that time, he established longstanding professional relationships with artists such as Chaka Khan and J.T. Taylor (formerly of Kool & The Gang). Mr. Keyes also arranged international concert and tour engagements for stars like Gladys Knight and Men At Work.
